

Great Smoky Mountain Council of the Boy Scouts of America
Trainer Development Conference

February 9, 2008
Sansom Scout Service Center
1333 Old Weisgarber Road
Knoxville Tennessee

What: The BSA Trainer Development Conference is designed to train adult volunteers to lead BSA training courses. Every scouting unit should have several adult volunteers who are trained to teach. This conference will provide participants with the skills necessary to conduct training programs for other leaders and young people in all parts of the scouting program. You will learn of the latest training methods, principles and technologies that are necessary to conduct an effective training program.

Where: Lewis M. Sansom Scout Service Center

When: 8:00 A.M. to 4:30 P.M.
February 9, 2008
(Lunch will be provided)

Cost: FREE - This conference is open to all scouting trainers or persons who wish to become scouting trainers.

Registration: While there is no registration fee, we do ask that you PRE-REGISTER for the conference so that we make sure we have enough handouts and food for all participants.
